THE GERRY HUNDT Trio (USA)

Gerry Hundt: vocals, guitar, mandolin

Tom Lehnert: drums

Renaud Lesire: bass

Chicago Blues? Yes! What about Surf, Rock and Country? YES! The Gerry Hundt Trio's repertoire spans genres and decades each night. From storming the stage at world-renowned blues venues like Buddy Guy's Legends to setting the mood at private events, Gerry and the fellas are sure to entertain. The Trio has appeared in Germany, Switzerland, France, BENELUX, Chicago, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana.

Our Influences

We draw inspiration from a wide range of musical genres, including Magic Sam, Muddy Waters, Otis Rush, Chris Stapleton, Dick Dale, Tony Joe White, and The Black Keys.

Our Story

Hailing from Chicago, Gerry Hundt is a respected veteran of the city's blues scene, performing regularly at Kingston Mines, Buddy Guy's Legends, and regional roadhouses. Album credits include Delmark, Blind Pig, and Blue Bella Records, garnering headline appearances at Chicago Blues Festival and Montreal Jazz Festival. In collaboration with roots stalwarts Tom Lehnert and Renaud Lesire, the Gerry Hundt Trio presents its living, evocative music to both entertain and engage audiences of any size.

With his Trio Gerry proves that he is a wunderkind of the Blues, an old-timey music multi-instrumentalist who plays as many roles as he does instruments. Hundt is an entertainer in the classic sense of "all-in and fully involved."

Tom Lehnert on drums and Renaud Lesire on bass keep the beats steady and funky.
